Statesman News Service KOLKATA, June 8. - It took the brilliance of a Mithun Chakraborty - not the reel-life hero - of South Point High School to restore the city to the top position on the unofficial merit list of this year's Higher Secondary Examinations. Mithun's feat was supplemented by that of his classmate Ananda Roy, who secured the second position jointly with Raja Basak of Raigunj Coronation High School in North Bengal. A regular topper, Mithun scored 979. He said: 'I studied for almost 10 hours a day and being privately tutored in four subjects helped me a lot.' The avid viewer of cartoon strips let it be known that if he failed ...
